CEYLON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
RULES

1. In these rules the following words shall have the following meanings unless such meanings are inconsistent with or repugnant to the subject or context:

   (i) "the Chamber" shall mean the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce established in terms of the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce Ordinance No. 10 of 1895 as amended by the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce (Amendment) Ordinances No. 2 of 1912 and No. 28 of 1932;

   (a) "the Ordinance" shall mean the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce Ordinance No. 10 of 1895 as amended by the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce (Amendment) Ordinances No. 2 of 1912 and No. 28 of 1932;

   (b) "the Committee" shall mean the Committee provided for in Section 4 of the Ordinance and appointed in compliance with these Rules;

   (c) the “Secretary General” shall mean the Secretary-General of the Chamber and includes any officer appointed to act in the post;

   (d) "a member of the Chamber" or "members of the Chamber" shall mean a member or the members as the case may be, of the Chamber admitted as such in terms of Rule 5 of these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires;

   (e) "these Rules" shall mean the Rules of the Chamber made in compliance with the provisions of the Ordinance.

2. (i) These Rules shall come into operation with effect from the Twenty Ninth (29th) day of June Two Thousand and Eighteen (2018).

   (ii) The Rules that were in operation as at the Twenty Eighth (28th) day of June Two Thousand and Eighteen (2018) are hereby repealed.

SECTION 1 – MEMBERS OF THE CHAMBER

3. Any Firm, Company, Corporation or individual resident in Sri Lanka and engaged or interested in the general trade of Sri Lanka and willing to aid in carrying into effect the objects of the Chamber shall be eligible for membership of the Chamber.

4. (i) An application for membership of the Chamber may be forwarded by an eligible entity or individual, to the Secretary General, in the prescribed format.

   (ii) Every such application shall –

   (a) be proposed and seconded by two members of the Chamber of not less than five years standing one of whom should, unless the Applicant is in a new line of business, be engaged in the same class or business as the Applicant, stating that the applicant is, in their opinion, in every way suitable for membership of the Chamber.

(b) be supported by such other documentation as may be required to establish eligibility and suitability.

5. (i) Upon receipt of a duly completed Application, the Secretary General shall submit same to the Committee for a decision with regard to the admission of the Applicant as a member of the Chamber.

(ii) The Committee shall consider such application at a meeting of the Committee and the applicant shall be admitted as a member of the Chamber upon the application being approved by two thirds (2/3rd) of the members of the Committee present and voting.

(iii) Upon an application being approved by the Committee, and the payment of the Entrance fee and annual subscription, the name and other details of the member shall be entered in the Register of members.

6. A member may, at any time after admission as a member of the Chamber, inform the Secretary General of the desire to be recognized as a Patron member and shall, upon making the Patron Member subscription, be recognized as a Patron member and shall thereupon be entitled to such special privileges as may be determined by the Committee for Patron Members in addition to the rights and privileges of a member.

7. Every member who is not in arrears of subscription shall have all the rights and privileges of membership including the right to attend and vote at meetings of the general membership and shall, for the purpose of exercising the right to vote, be entitled to authorize one representative to cast the vote on its behalf.

8. In the event of a change in the name of an individual who is a member, or of a change in the style of a firm which is a member, or of a change in the name of a company which is a member, the individual, firm or company in question shall re-apply for membership in accordance with the foregoing provisions and shall, if the Committee thinks fit, pay another entrance fee.

9. (i) Any individual or entity eligible to apply for membership of the Chamber in compliance with the Rules herein contained, may apply to the Secretary General to be admitted as an Associate Member if the annual turnover of that individual or entity and the number of employees in permanent employment by that individual or entity is less than such amount as is determined by the Committee.

(ii) Any individual or entity admitted as an Associate Member shall be permitted to retain the Associate Membership status only for a maximum period of three years and shall, upon the completion of the term of three years, be admitted as a member of the Chamber if all the requirements therefor are satisfied.

(iii) An Associate member shall pay the entrance fee and annual subscription as is determined by the Committee and shall be entitled to such privileges as may be determined by the Committee but shall not have the right to be represented on the Committee and to vote at meetings of the membership.
10. At any General Meeting of the Chamber, the members present thereat may, by resolution passed by a majority of such members, admit as Honorary Members of the Chamber persons distinguished in commerce, finance, art or administration, or who shall have rendered to the Chamber services which the Chamber Committee considers to be of a special nature. Honorary members shall not be required to submit an application or to pay any fees.

11. (i) Any individual, firm, company or corporation, resident or registered outside Sri Lanka, and who is engaged in exporting goods, services or technology to Sri Lanka or in making investments in Sri Lanka and is willing to aid in carrying into effect the objects of the Chamber is eligible but not entitled to election as an overseas member of the Chamber.

(ii) The Committee shall make and enforce rules and by-laws necessary for the election and registration of an overseas member, payment of entrance fee and annual subscription fee by an overseas member, resignation, removal or suspension of an overseas member and provision of services to an overseas member and ancillary matters.

(iii) An overseas member shall be entitled to and enjoy all the rights and privileges of a member of the Chamber other than the right to vote at meetings of the Chamber, to requisition meetings of the Chamber, to hold office in the Chamber as a member of the Committee of the Chamber or an office-bearer of the Chamber or as a member of any sub committee of the Chamber or to be counted in the quorum for any meetings of the Chamber.

12. (i) Any number of members, who may desire to associate themselves together in a Trade Section with a view to representing more effectually the interests of any particular business or trade, may address the Committee to that effect and the Committee thereupon may, if it thinks fit, authorize the formation of such a Trade Section and the representation of such Trade Section on the Committee. The Committee may also at any time, if it thinks fit, revoke such authority, whereupon such Trade Section shall not be entitled to representation on the Committee.

(ii) The affairs of each Trade Section shall be managed by a Committee elected from its own members and each Trade Section shall frame its own rules for the conduct of its affairs and of the particular business interests it represents, but all such rules and any amendments thereto shall be first submitted for the approval of the Committee. A register shall be kept by each Trade Section of the names of the members thereof, but no person shall be eligible for membership of a Trade Section who is not a member of the Chamber.

(iii) The Secretary to the Trade Section shall be the Secretary General or the nominee of the Secretary General.

13. Each Trade Section shall furnish to the Chamber a brief report on the working of such Trade Section during each period of twelve months ending on the 31st day of March together with a list of its members as at that date. The Committee may include any such report in the Annual Report of the Chamber.

14. (i) Any company or corporation which goes into liquidation whether voluntary or otherwise or which suspends payment and any individual or firm which becomes insolvent or suspends payment, shall there upon cease to be a member.
Any member may resign on giving one calendar months’ notice in writing to the Secretary General, but such member shall be liable for the membership subscription for the half-year in which the date of resignation falls.

15. (i) Two-thirds of the members present and voting at an Ordinary General Meeting of the Chamber may, by resolution, recommended by the Board, expel any member who has willfully refused or neglected to comply with the Rules, by laws and decisions of the Chamber and the decisions of the Committee, and the Code of Ethics as amended from time to time or whose conduct in their opinion renders such member unsuitable to be a member of the Chamber and any member so expelled shall on the passing of such resolution cease to be a member of the Chamber and shall not be entitled to a refund of any membership subscriptions previously paid by him or any part thereof:

Provided, however, that the member concerned shall be given notice and an opportunity to be heard before such a resolution is recommended by the Board for adoption at any Ordinary General Meeting of the Chamber. For the purposes of this section, notice shall be sufficient so long as it is in writing and sent to the member concerned by registered post at least seven (07) days prior to the date of the said Ordinary General Meeting. The date, time and place of the said Ordinary General Meeting, as well as a brief explanation for the reasons of such expulsion shall also be specified in the notice.

(ii) The Board may, pending the final adoption of a resolution by the membership, recommend suspension of Membership, in cases deemed appropriate by the Board.

16. (i) The entrance fee and annual subscription for membership shall be such amounts as are determined from time to time by the Committee.

(ii) The annual subscription for membership shall be payable in advance on the first day of April in each year. Where a member is admitted during the course of the financial year, the amount payable for that year shall be calculated by dividing the number of complete months for which membership is effective by twelve and multiplying the annual subscription for membership by the resulting fraction.

(iii) Any member whose subscription is in arrears for more than one year shall forfeit all privileges of membership including the right to attend and vote at meetings, and the name of such member shall after one month's notice be removed from the register of members unless prior to the expiration of such notice such arrears shall have been paid.

(iv) If the name of a member is removed from the register of members, members shall be notified accordingly but the amount unpaid shall nevertheless be a debt due to and recoverable by the Chamber.

SECTION II - APPROVED ASSOCIATIONS AND AFFILIATES OF THE CHAMBER

17. (i) An Association or other body of persons, properly constituted, consisting of persons who are engaged in trade or industry in Sri Lanka, which in the opinion of the Committee, makes a significant contribution to national economic value and has objects which are not in conflict with or contrary to the objects of the Chamber, is eligible but not entitled, upon application made therefor to the Committee, to be recognized as an Approved Association of the Chamber.

(ii) The Committee may, if it thinks fit, approve the representation of such Association or other body of persons on the Committee by a member who is eligible in terms of Rule 22, and may at any time, if it thinks fit, withdraw such approval, whereupon such Association or other body, shall not be entitled to representation on the Committee.

(iii) The representative of an Approved Association so recognized by the Committee shall be entitled to attend meetings of the Committee.

(iv) resignation, removal and suspension of services.

SECTION III - COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT
21. (i) The business and affairs of the Chamber shall be managed by a Committee consisting of the following –
   (a) Elected members; and
   (b) Past Chairmen; and
   (c) Nominated members.

   (ii) The Elected members shall be the following who shall be elected by the members of the Chamber from among its members who satisfy the eligibility criteria set out in Rule 22, on the recommendation of the Nominations Committee and the Board, to represent the interests of commerce and industry-
       (a) ten (10) persons who shall have previously served on the Committee for an aggregate period of at least two (02) years; and
       (b) twenty two (22) other persons.

   (iii) The Past Chairmen shall be the ten (10) persons who have, during the immediately preceding period, held office as Chairmen of the Chamber.

   (iv) The Nominated members shall be the following, who shall be nominated in compliance with the eligibility criteria set out in Rule 22-
       (a) A nominee each from the Trade Sections referred to in Rule 12;
       (b) A nominee each from the Approved Associations referred to in Rule 17;
       (c) A nominee each from the Affiliated Chambers referred to in Rule 18;
       (d) A nominee each from the Affiliated Members referred to in Rule 19;

   (v) A nominated member may nominate an alternate to represent such nominee, at any meeting of the Committee.

22. The persons who shall be eligible to be nominated or elected as a member of the Committee shall be –
   (i) any individual who is a member of the Chamber; or
   (ii) a partner of any firm which is a member of the Chamber; or
   (iii) a director of any company or corporation which is a member of the Chamber; or
   (iv) a person authorised to sign per procurationem the name of any firm which is a member of the Chamber; or
   (v) a person who is authorized to sign per procurationem any company or corporation which is a member of the Chamber or;
   (vi) a person who is the general manager or senior manager of a company or corporation which is a member of the Chamber.

23. Any vacancy arising in the elected or nominated members of the Committee shall be filled in compliance with the relevant provisions and procedure set out herein for the election and appointment of members to the Committee and the member so appointed shall hold office until the immediately ensuing Annual General Meeting.

24. The Committee may invite any person representing any sector within the industry who in its opinion will add value to the deliberations of the Committee, as an invitee, to attend meetings of the Chamber Committee.
Such Invitee shall not be considered to be a member of the Chamber or of the Chamber Committee merely by virtue of such invitation, and shall not have a vote at any meeting of the Committee or the Chamber membership.

25. On a date not later than the 10th day of March in each year the Secretary General shall call upon:-
   (i) each of the Trade Sections formed under Rule 12; and
   (ii) each of the Approved Associations referred to in Rule 17; and
   (iii) each of the Affiliated Chambers referred to in Rule 18; and
   (iv) each of the Affiliated Members referred to in Rule 19 to nominate its representative to serve on the Committee, to reach the Secretary-General not later than the 20th day of March of that year.

26. (i) The Secretary General shall, not later than 21 days before the date of the Annual General Meeting of the same year, issue a Circular to members setting out the following -
   (a) the nominations received in response to the call referred to in Rule 25;
   (b) the names of any elected members of the retiring Committee who are recommended by the Nominations Committee and the Board, for re-election as members under the categories referred to in Rule 21(ii); and
   (c) the names of new members recommended by the Nominations Committee and the Board to be elected to the Committee under the categories referred to in Rule 21(ii); and
   (d) call for nominations in addition to those submitted under sub paragraphs (b) and (c) above of members who satisfy the eligibility criteria set out in Rule 22 that the members may wish to propose as candidates to be elected under the categories referred to in Rule 21(ii)(a) and (b); and
   (e) the date by which such nominations should reach the Secretary General, which date shall not be later than ten (10) days prior to the Annual General meeting of that year.

(ii) All members of the Chamber shall, on receipt of the Circular referred to in sub paragraph (i) above, be entitled to nominate names of persons as candidates to be elected to the Committee under the categories referred to in Rule 21(ii)(a) and (b) and such nominations shall-
   (a) be submitted in writing in the format prescribed therefor by the Secretary General; and
   (b) be of members who satisfy the eligibility criteria set out in Rule 22; and
   (c) be supported by at least twenty five (25) members; and
   (d) indicate whether the nomination is for election to the category referred to in Rule 21(ii) (a) or in Rule 21(ii) (b); and
   (e) contain the consent in writing of the nominee; and
   (f) unless otherwise indicated, be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Secretary General; and
   (g) be submitted to reach the Secretary General on or before the date specified in terms of sub paragraph (i)(e) above.
(iii) If the names recommended by the Nominations Committee and the Board in terms of Rule 26(i)(b) and (c) and the names received by the Secretary General in compliance with Rule 26(ii) are equal to the number to be elected under each category, the persons so named shall be deemed to have been duly elected as members of the Committee. If however, the number of such names exceeds the number to be elected under any category, a ballot shall be taken as soon as may be convenient in compliance with the provisions of Rule 27.

27. (i) For the purpose of conducting the Ballot, the Secretary General shall issue Ballot papers to all the members eligible to vote and set out the date and time by which the Ballot papers should be returned to reach the Secretary General, which date shall not be less than four days prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting.

(ii) The Ballot papers shall contain the following information-
(a) the names of all members who are nominated for election;
(b) by whom each candidate is nominated; and
(c) such further instructions and information as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the Ballot.

(iii) On the business day next succeeding the date specified for the return of the ballot papers, the ballot papers received by the date and time set out in paragraph (i) above shall be opened under the supervision of the Secretary General, and the twenty two (22) candidates and ten (10) candidates who secure the highest number of votes under the categories referred to in Rule 21(ii)(a) and Rule 21(ii)(b) respectively, shall be declared to have been duly elected as members of the Committee under each of the said categories.

In the event that two or more candidates secure an equal number of votes for the final vacancy in any category, the elected members and Past Chairmen of the Committee may decide that all of them shall be declared elected or may select by lot which of the candidates shall be declared elected to the Committee.

(iv) The ballot papers may be opened on the day referred to in paragraph (iii) above, even though all ballot papers issued to members may not have been received. Any ballot papers received after the time and date fixed for their return shall be destroyed by the Secretary General unopened.

28. The Committee appointed under the preceding rules shall assume office immediately after the holding of the next succeeding Annual General meeting and shall hold office until the Annual General Meeting of the ensuing year and shall be eligible to be re-elected if eligible in compliance with these Rules.

29. (i) The Committee may declare the seat of a member of the Committee vacant in the event of such member failing to attend three consecutive meetings of the Committee.

(ii) The Committee shall declare the seat of a member of the Committee vacant upon the occurrence of any of the following events-
(a) the resignation or death of the member,
(b) the member being adjudged to be of unsound mind or insolvent; or
(c) upon the member being convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude; or
(d) the member being an individual, is in arrears of subscription for more than one year; or
(e) if the entity to which the member belongs is in arrears of subscription for more than one year.

(iii) In the event of a vacancy arising upon a declaration by the Committee, such vacancy shall thereupon be filled in compliance with the relevant provisions and procedure set out herein for the election and appointment of members to the Committee and the member so appointed shall hold office until the immediately ensuing Annual General Meeting.

(iv) A member of the Committee may be excused from attendance at any meeting by a resolution of the Committee passed either before or after his failure to so attend.

(v) The Committee shall have full power to act notwithstanding any vacancy on the Committee.

(vi) The members shall from time to time be notified of any change or changes in the Committee under this Rule.

SECTION IV—
CHAIRPERSON, VICE CHAIRPERSON AND DEPUTY VICE CHAIRPERSON

30. The Chairperson, Vice Chairperson and Deputy Vice Chairperson (the office bearers) shall be elected as follows—

(i) A Committee member who currently holds the office of Vice Chairperson and who has completed a second consecutive term in that position shall be deemed to be elected by the Committee as Chairperson for the next succeeding term of office of the Committee, unless the Committee resolves to the contrary, in compliance with Rule 31.

(ii) A Committee member who currently holds the office of Deputy Vice Chairperson and who has completed a second consecutive term in that position shall be deemed to be elected by the Committee as Vice Chairperson for the next succeeding term of office of the Committee, unless the Committee resolves to the contrary, in compliance with the provisions hereof.

(iii) The Deputy Vice Chairperson shall be elected by the Committee from among persons who have served on the Committee for an aggregate period of two (02) years, after considering the recommendation of the ex-officio members of the Board and of the Nominations Committee.

31. (i) A member of the Chamber Committee may submit to the Secretary General by a date not later than one month prior to the next Annual General meeting of the Chamber, a Resolution proposing that either the Chairperson or the Vice Chairperson shall not be deemed to be elected as set out in sub paragraphs (i) and (ii) of Rule 30 and the Secretary General shall thereupon convene a General meeting of the Committee for the purpose of considering such Resolution.
(ii) A Resolution so presented shall be considered by the Committee and a secret ballot taken thereon and such Resolution shall be considered to have been validly adopted if a majority of not less than three fourths of the members of the Committee entitled to vote at meetings of the Committee, including those not present, vote in favour of its adoption.

32. In the event that a Resolution is validly adopted as set out above, the relevant post or posts shall be filled as set out below-

(i) If the resolution is in respect of the person deemed to be elected as Chairperson, then, the Deputy Vice Chairperson shall assume the post of Chairperson;

(ii) If the resolution is in respect of the person deemed to be elected as Vice Chairperson, then the post of Vice Chairperson shall be filled by a member elected by the Committee from among the elected members of the Committee who have served on the Committee for an aggregate period of two (02) years and after considering the recommendation of the ex-officio members of the Board and of the Nominations Committee.

33. (i) In the event that the member holding office as Vice Chairperson informs in writing that he is unable to accept the office as Chairperson, the member holding office as Deputy Vice Chairperson shall be deemed to have been elected to the post of Chairperson and in the event that the Deputy Vice Chairperson also informs in writing that he is unable to accept the office as Chairperson, then the Chairperson shall be elected by the Committee from among persons who have served on the Committee for an aggregate period of two
(02) years and after considering the recommendation of the ex-officio members of the Board and of the Nominations Committee.

(ii) In the event that the member holding office as Deputy Vice Chairperson informs in writing that he is unable to accept the office of Vice Chairperson, the Vice Chairperson shall be elected by the Committee from among the elected members of the Committee who have served on the Committee for an aggregate period of two (02) years and after considering the recommendation of the ex-officio members of the Board and the Nominations Committee.

34. (i) In the event that the office of Chairperson, Vice Chairperson or Deputy Vice Chairperson, is vacated by –
(a) the death, insolvency, resignation or otherwise of the holder of the post; or
(b) the holder of the post ceasing to be qualified as a member of the Committee, the vacancy arising thereby shall be filled in the manner set out in sub paragraph (ii) below.

(ii) In the case of the vacancy arising-
(a) in the post of Chairperson, the Vice Chairperson shall assume the post of Chairperson;

(b) in the post of Vice Chairperson, the Deputy Vice Chairperson shall assume the post of Vice Chairperson; and

(c) in the post of Deputy Chairperson, the vacancy shall be filled by a member elected by the elected members and Past Chairmen of the Committee from among persons who have served on the Committee for an aggregate period of two (02) years and after considering the recommendation of the ex-officio members of the Board and of the Nominations Committee.

(iii) The member assuming office in terms of sub paragraph (ii) above shall hold the post until the next ensuing Annual General meeting and shall be eligible to be re-elected if eligible in terms of these Rules.

(iv) In the event that the Chairperson or Vice Chairperson is away from the Island for more than four consecutive months, the Vice Chairperson or the Deputy Vice Chairperson, respectively, shall act in the post for such period of absence.

35. (i) At each Annual General Meeting, the Chairperson, Vice Chairperson and Deputy Vice Chairperson shall retire, unless they have been re-elected in compliance with these Rules, or are deemed to assume the office of Chairperson or the Vice Chairperson in compliance with these Rules.

(ii) An office bearer who has completed one year as Chairperson, Vice Chairperson or Deputy Vice Chairperson, shall be eligible to be re-elected to the same post for a maximum period of one further year in the successive term, upon election by the elected members and Past Chairmen of the Committee for that year.

(iii) Where the election of all or any office bearer in respect of any year becomes necessary in terms of these Rules, the elected members and Past Chairmen of the Committee appointed for that year in terms of these Rules shall meet as soon as practicable after its appointment but prior to the next ensuing Annual General Meeting to so elect the office bearer or office bearers.

SECTION V - POWERS OF THE COMMITTEE

36. (i) The Committee shall have power to do all such things as may be necessary to achieve the objectives of the Chamber as set out in the Ordinance.

(ii) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers vested in the Committee in terms of sub paragraph (i) above, the Committee shall have the power to do the following-

(a) purchase, sell or mortgage the whole or any part or parts of the immovable property of the Chamber with the consent of the majority of the members present at any General Meeting;

(b) sell or mortgage any movable property of the Chamber;

(c) take on lease any lands or buildings for and on behalf of the Chamber at or for such price or prices, and/ for such rent or rents and under such title and upon such terms and conditions as the Committee shall think fit and proper;

(d) to lease or let on any form of tenancy any lands or buildings or any parts or portions thereof belonging to the Chamber for such periods, and at such rents, and upon such terms and conditions as it shall think fit and proper.
(e) to erect and construct any building or buildings on any land or lands purchased or leased or to be purchased or leased as aforesaid;

(f) to place the rooms of the Chamber at the disposal of any other person or body of persons, or to hire them for the purpose of public sales or of any meetings and/or for any other purpose, at times when they are not required for the use of the chamber;

(g) to borrow from time to time and at its discretion money for the purpose of the Chamber, to such an extent, in such manner, and upon such terms and conditions as it may think fit;

(h) to make rules for and otherwise control the management of the property of the Chamber;

(i) to appoint employees with such remuneration and at such salaries and on such conditions as it may consider advisable and to pay the expenses occasioned thereby, as well as the current expenses for periodicals, rent or otherwise, out of the funds of the Chamber and should such expenses exceed the amount of the annual income of the Chamber the deficit shall be borne by the members in equal proportions in compliance with section 13 of the Ordinance.

(j) to appoint any member or members of the Committee or any other member or members or other person or persons as agent or agents for the management of the affairs of the Chamber and the accomplishment of its objects (including the recommendation or appointment of any person as representative or agent of the Chamber whether in Sri Lanka or elsewhere, for any purpose connected with commerce or trade);

(k) to establish and support Provident Funds for the benefit of the employees of the Chamber upon such terms and conditions and subject to such rules as the Committee may think fit;

(l) to remunerate as the Committee may think fit the services of and to pay any expense of the Chairperson and/or Vice-Chairperson and/or Deputy Vice Chairperson and/or any other member or members and/or any representative or representatives and/or agent or agents and/or any representatives visiting any country or countries overseas in the interests of commerce or trade and from time to time fix and vary the amount of such remuneration;

(m) to remove or to suspend any of the employees for such reason as the committee may think proper and advisable;

(n) to institute, conduct, defend, compromise, settle, or abandon any legal proceedings on behalf of the Chamber, and also to compound and allow time for payment or satisfaction of any debts due to or from the chamber, and any claims or demands by or against the chamber;
